

December 2015

Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths ... and all flesh shall see the salvation of God. (Luke 3: 1-6)

I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. (Luke 3: 10-18)

Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken by the Lord would be fulfilled. (Luke 1:39-45)

Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those on whom His favors rests. (Luke 2: 1-4)

Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and men. (Luke 2: 41-52)

In this YEAR of MERCY, we love, we forgive, and we ask forgiveness of You ever-living God . You loved us into life and love us each moment toward eternal life. ... The Word was made flesh and made His dwelling among us. We have seen His glory, the glory of Your only begotten Son, Jesus the Christ. ... And confidently we pray: Pour forth we beg you, O Lord, your grace into our hearts, that we, to whom the Incarnation of Christ Your Son was made known by the message of an Angel, may, through His Passion and Cross, be brought to the glory of His Resurrection ... May the redemption Jesus' life, death, and resurrection acquired for us, through His sacred humanity and divinity, cleanse us and open our hearts towards one another. May the birth we celebrate of Jesus in Bethlehem be a sign of His rebirth in the Spirit in each one of us. We ask this Father, through Jesus Your Son en-fleshed in human nature, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, living and reigning forever. Amen.

1

Fear nothing, Jesus is and will always be totally yours, and nobody will take him from you.

2

Do not let yourself be overcome by discouragement if you don't always visibly see your every effort crowned.

3

Jesus sees, rewards, and commands good will and not good success.

4

Try as best you can without excessive anxiety to do what you must and wish to do with perfection.

5

Walk with simplicity in the ways of the Lord, and do not torment your spirit.

6

Hate your faults, but with a quiet hate, not troublesome and restless.

7

We must be patient with (our faults) and gain them through holy humility.

8

Without patience ... your imperfections will increase constantly, as there is nothing that nourishes our defects like restlessness and the haste to drive them away.

9

With divine help your will, will always be superior to (your feelings of repugnance and resentment), and divine love will never diminish in your soul if you do not cease to pray.

10

What is there to fear? But if fear takes you by surprise, you must shout loudly: 'O Lord, save me!'

11

Keep Jesus Christ Crucified present to your imagination, in your arms, and on your breast ...

12

Often say to (Jesus): 'What can I have on earth, or what can I expect in heaven, if not you, O my Jesus?...'

13

Don't waste time.

14

Each one loves according to his own tastes; few, however, live according to their duty and the will of the Lord.

15

Many start out on the path to perfection but few arrive at the summit.

16

May Jesus fill you with his holy love, and may he transform you totally in him!

17

Lovingly humble yourself before God and men, because God speaks to those who are humble.

18

The Lord will fill (you) with his balm when he sees (your soul) empty of the perfumes of the world; and the more you humble yourself the more he will exalt you

19

You say you are anxious about the future, but don't you know that the Lord is with you always and that our enemy has no power over one who has resolved to belong entirely to Jesus?

20

Humble yourself, then, at the delightful thought that you are in the divine arms of Jesus ... you are being guided toward the destination that will be to your greatest advantage.

21

Never fall back on yourself alone, but place your trust in God, and don't be too eager to be set free from your present state.

22

Let the Holy Spirit act within you.

23

(The Holy Spirit) is so wise and gentle and discreet that he never brings about anything but good.

24

How good this Holy Spirit, this Comforter, is to all, but how supremely good he is to those who seek him!

25

Let us draw near to the Child Jesus with hearts free from sin, that we may discover how sweet and delightful it is to love him.

26

When one fights along with Jesus, how can one have any doubt about winning? Isn't our God stronger than all the others?

27

Jesus, you always come into my soul ... Jesus, I love you very much. Make up for my love's deficiencies.

28

Do your best to conform always and in everything to the will of God in all eventualities, and do not fear. This is the sure path to heaven.

29

When you are overcome by sadness, ... then more than ever must you renew your trust in God. Cast far from you all thought of things that cause you to be sad.

30

Oh, how good God is ..! It is true that he is good to all, but he is particularly good to those who place their trust in him.

31

Whoever wants to love can. It is enough to remove what is disorder. Entering into order we love God!

HAPPY and JOY-FILLED CHRISTMAS 2015
HAPPY NEW YEAR 2016

 Advent **

Saint Pio of Pietrelcina, you came, as the Baptist of old, into the spiritual wilderness of our world. You were a messenger sent to prepare people's hearts for the Lord to enter them. Pray that I may be a fertile ground in which God's Word may enter and live. Padre Pio, you want your Spiritual Children to live in God's Will and graces. Pray that we accept His Way to walk, His Truth to speak, and His Life to live. As we joyfully await and celebrate the birth of our Savior Jesus, pray that we may follow the prompting of the Holy Spirit, live more fully the Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ, and thus come to the Father, Source of all Life, Whose love for us endures for ever and ever. Amen.

TO THE BLESSED TRINITY

Most Blessed Trinity whom I adore, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Help me to be firmly rooted in Your Will today, as if my soul were already in eternity. May nothing be able to trouble my peace or make me leave you. Stay with me, Lord, and lead me more deeply into your Mystery. Grant me peace and serenity today. In the love you bore our Father, Padre Pio, make our hearts your dwelling place that we may never abandon You. As Spiritual Children of Padre Pio, who bore the marks of Jesus' saving Sacrifice, make us vigilant in faith, constant in hope, and undying in our love for You and all people. You live and reign forever. Amen.

(The following Antiphons are read as brief intercessions every day. The Antiphons are titles given to the long-awaited Messiah. The Church prays them during the week before Christmas in the Liturgy of the Hours and as the alleluia verse at Mass. We use them in prayer this month as our daily invocation for the Savior to bless and protect us.)

PREPARATORY PRAYER

Lord Jesus, you came to save your people. Blessed are we who celebrate Your wonderful Incarnation. Hear us as we pray with the prophetic titles that Israel of old offered in hopeful anticipation of Your coming:

ANTIPHONARY INTERCESSIONS
(everyday)

Wisdom of our God most high,
teach us to walk in the paths of knowledge

Leader of Ancient Israel, rescue us with your mighty power.

Flower of Jesse's Stem,
save us without delay.
Key of David,
free those imprisoned in the darkness of ignorance.

Radiant Dawn:
shine on those lost in the darkness of spiritual death.

King of all nations:

save humanity, your own creation.

Emmanuel,
you are God's presence among us,
save us, your people

OUR LADY, MOTHER OF THE REDEEMER:

Holy Mother Mary, ever-virgin yet fruitful woman, in the name of all humanity, your availability to the Father's Will offered the Eternal God a dwelling place in time. I thank you for your openness to the Divine challenge to become the Mother of the redeemed, as You trustingly accepted to be the Mother of the Redeemer. With hopeful heart, you awaited the fulfillment of the Father's Will. You gazed with awe at the Eternal Love you held in your arms and faithfully accompanied Jesus in His life through His ministry even to the Cross. Be with me today and every day, that I may await the Lord in joyful expectation of His coming in glory. May I gaze with awe at His Hidden yet Real Presence in the Mystery of the Eucharist, where He is enfleshed in those who receive him. Mother of the Redeemer and redeemed, the Christ and the Christian, lead me to the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, Who lives for ever. Amen.

Holy Father, St. Pio of Pietrelcina, lover of the Eucharist, pray for us.

Holy Father, St. Pio of Pietrelcina, lover of Our Lady, pray for us.

Holy Father, St. Pio of Pietrelcina, lover of Christ's Mystical body, the Church, pray for us.

* Christmastime ****

Father, you gave the human race eternal salvation through the motherhood of the Virgin Mary. May we experience the help of her prayers in our lives, for through her we received the very source of life, your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

(Pray following Antiphon everyday):

The Word was enfleshed in humanity and made His dwelling among us. We have seen His glory, the glory of the only begotten Son of God, Jesus the Christ.

(Conclude with the following prayers):

God of time and of eternity, with Christmas joy we praise you for the year gone by and for all that lies ahead. The Birth of Jesus opens our eyes and our hearts to the beginning of a new year of salvation. Your Son comes among us to bring glad tidings to the poor and to proclaim peace to all people of good will. May Jesus whom I adore as my Lord and Savior help me to live in The Word, Who leads me to you who lives with Him and the Holy Spirit, for ever. Amen.

I may enter the fullness of eternity, as Jesus, through You, became one with us in all things but sin, entering into time. Amen.

Holy Patriarch, Saint Joseph, Messianic Father of Jesus, your Foster Son and our Savior, pray for us, now and at the hour of death. Together with you beloved spouse, our Most Blessed Mother Mary, lead us to Jesus, that as you, we may live in his presence and pass from this life with Jesus and Mary at our side.

Padre Pio of Pietrelcina, Father and Guide for many who seek a deeper encounter with Jesus and Mary, as we celebrate Jesus' birth in time, pray for us that we may be worthy to have Him come into our hearts. The Christ Child of Bethlehem calls us to that spiritual childhood that you never lost. Pray for us that we may be the children of God we were created to be. Be our guide and advocate as we strive to live in the Father's will, through Jesus His Son, by the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Holy Mary, Mother of God and my Mother, pray to God for me, who have recourse to you. Pray that one day
