

April 2017

Did I not tell that if you believe you will see the glory of God?

(John 11: 1-45)

Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

(Matthew 21: 1-11)

Do not be afraid! ... He has been raised just as he said.

(Matthew 28: 1-10)

He saw and believed.

(John 20: 1-9)

Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.

(John 20:19-31)

How slow of heart to believe ... Was it not necessary that the Christ should enter these things and enter into his glory?

(Luke 24: 13-35)

My Resurrected Jesus, my Lord and my God, I join with all creation in celebrating the feast of Your victory over sin and death. The light of the Resurrection gives meaning to all life. Death and suffering no longer have the last word. You have conquered all that darkens our lives and have introduced us to the New Day. May the joy of the Resurrection fill the hearts of all whom you have redeemed in your Blood. May Your Holy Spirit, first Gift of the Resurrection, be with us always, that we may be renewed and filled with Life as we seek to be Heralds of the Great King proclaiming Your Resurrection and New Life to all the world.

Padre Pio of Pietrelcina, pure father, you loved your Spiritual Children very much. How many of your children were acquired for God at the price of your blood offered with that of Jesus! Pray that we who have not known you personally, may also be numbered among your Spiritual Children. Through your fatherly protection, saintly guidance, and the spiritual strength you gain for us from God, at the moment of our death may we encounter you waiting for us at the Gates of Paradise.

Let us thank the divine mercy which makes us sharers in the Passion and Death of our Divine Master.

2

Until we are able to say: This Christian is an-other Christ, do not let us pause in our ascent of the Hill of Calvary.

Remember, when we are suffering torment, when we are attacked by Satan, that after Calvary comes Tabor.

4

If we could only perceive that which still amazes the heavenly spirits...the state to which God's grace has raised us ... His children.

In the silence of your heart ... offer your praises, blessings, contrite humble heart and your entire self to the heavenly Father.

Let us remain always close to (Jesus).

Let us silently adore the divine disposition (divine plan).

8

Pray to the Lord that all may work out for His glory and for the good of souls.

9

The Lord is so good that He never fails to tone things down.

10

We don't commit a sin without first being aware of it.

11

May it please Jesus ... to console you ... in every tribulation.

12

Turn your back on matters which torment you ... and set your mind at rest.

13

Remember that spiritual peace can be maintained even in the midst of all the storms of this life.

14

The proof that we are at peace with God is our moral certainty of not having any mortal sin on our conscience.

15

Peace consists in having achieved victory over the world, the devil, and our own passions.

16

Let us keep our gazed fixed on the heavenly home reserved for us.

17

Let us aim at it (our heavenly home) with the greatest care.

18

Let us withdraw our gaze from ... worldly goods ... (that) prevent us from keeping our eyes fixed on our heavenly home.

19

Oh, how worthless is the earth, when I look at heaven!

20

Offer your own sufferings to the divine Father along with the sufferings of Jesus.

21

Take care not to heed the evil one if he suggests anything to you ... you know he is a liar.

22

Listen to Jesus alone who comes to you in His own name, and that is enough.

23

This is the finest grace that can be asked by and on behalf of those who aspire to the spiritual life ... increase in heavenly light.

24

When a righteous soul obtains this light, it comes to know and love its God and eternal things.

25

We must ask the Spirit, the Comforter, to enlighten us

26

(We ask the Spirit) to make us increasingly aware of the excellence of our Christian vocation.

27

Let us pray that (the Spirit) may enlighten us more and more as to the immensity of the eternal inheritance reserved for us by the ... Father.

28

Pray to the Father ... to enable us to penetrate more deeply into the mystery of how sinners like ourselves have been led to salvation.

29

Non-existence is less far from God than is the sinner.

If all could just understand the extreme wretchedness and dishonor from which God's omnipotent hand has rescued us.

He is Risen! Alleluia!
Why do you seek Him among the dead?
Tell the others He is alive!
Alleluia!

April - Month of the Redemption

For the days of the Sacred Triduum and Easter Sunday, the liturgies speak to us profoundly. A suggestion would be to recite the litany of the Stations of the Cross (see prayers for March 2017) until the Sacred Triduum. During each day of the Triduum read another account of the Passion of Jesus (see below) each day as offered by one of the evangelists.

- April 13 - Holy Thursday: Passion accd. Matthew 26 & 27
- April 14 - Good Friday - Passion accd. Mark 14 & 15
(Passion according to John is read at Good Friday Lit.)
- April 15 - Holy Saturday: Passion accd. Luke 22 & 23
- April 16 - Easter Sunday: Matthew 28 / Mark 16

The 15 "Stations of Joy"

From Resurrection to Pentecost

The "Stations of Joy" each commemorate one of the passages in Scripture when the Resurrected Jesus tried tenderly to convince us of His Resurrection, to change our sorrows into joys. A sad Christian is not a convincing Christian... let us try to pray and live these "Stations of Joy" during the glorious Paschal time, from Easter Sunday to Pentecost. The 40 days of Lent are intense ones for a Christian, but the next 40 days of Paschal time, from the Resurrection to the Ascension, should be the most joyful, ending an extra 10 days later with the glory of Pentecost. (The Scriptural citations after each Station of Joy are offered for anyone who might desire to use a Station a day as a personal point of meditation)

Litany of the Stations of Easter Joy

(*) Indicates the refrain to be said after each Station: Through Your glorious Resurrection, grant me this grace, Lord Jesus.

I Lord, through Your glorious Resurrection, may I live in the gift of Your love, joy and peace, and witness the NewLife You offer those who believe in You. (*) [Mt.28, Mk.16, Lk.24/28, Jn.20-21]

II Lord, through Your encounter with Mary Magdalene after Your Resurrection, may I hear You speak my name each day in the depths of my heart and respond by proclaiming Your love to others in my life. (*) [Jn.20, Mt.28, Mk.16]

III Lord, through Your encounter with the other Holy Women and instruction to tell the Good News to the disciples of Your Resurrection, may I be fearless in proclaiming my Faith in You to everyone. (*) [Mt.28,8-10; Lk.24, 10-11]

IV Lord, through Your encounter with Two Disciples from Emmaus who were enlightened on the road and recognized You in the Breaking of the Bread, may I hear Your Word with an open heart and always acknowledge You truly present in the Sacrament of the Altar. May I joyfully acknowledge You without hesitation as the two of Emmaus did. (*) [Lk.24: 13-35]

V Lord, through the Peace, Pardon, and the Paraclete's grace You offered as the first gifts of Your Resurrection, may I cooperate with God's grace and be a source of forgiveness and peace to others. (*) [Jn.20: 21-23]

VI Lord, through Your manifestation to the Doubting Thomas, may I come to recognize You in the wounds and scars of those who suffer in any way, and acknowledge You before all people as My Lord, and MyGod. (*) [Jn.20: 24-28]

VII Lord, through Your appearance and concern for the needs of the Apostles who went fishing and Your eating with them as a sign that it was truly You alive, grant that I recognize You in the ordinary moments of life and trust that You assist me in my needs. Let my faith in You be proof enough for me. (*) [Jn.21,1-14]

VIII Lord, through Your loving encounter with Peter on the Shore and Entrusting to Him the Responsibility to Shepherd Your Flock, may I always be faithful to the Church and those called to Shepherd Your people. May I never forget that where there is Peter, there is the Church, and where there is the Church, there are You Who guide guard and protect us through our shepherds. (*) [Jn.21: 15-17]

IX Lord, through Your loving encounter with Mary Your Mother after Your Glorious Resurrection, may I always foster a deep love and devotion for our Heavenly Mother. May I celebrate her exalted place in the mystery of our salvation, and confide in Her almighty intercession for all God's children. (*) [Jn.20, Acts 1]

X Lord, You commanded Your followers to Go and Preach the Gospel to all Creation. May I be a living Gospel of peace and blessings to all that through my words and actions others may come to know, love and serve You. (*) [Mt.28: 19-20]

XI Lord, through the Five "Signs" of a Christian, may I cast out the demons of addiction and inappropriate life; speak the language of love, joy and peace; be fearless before the serpents of hatred, jealousy and unfaithfulness, remain unharmed by the poison of slander, injustice, sickness; be a healing touch for those who find life wearisome and lonely. (*) [Mk.16: 17-18]

XII Lord, You Promised to Remain Always With Us. May I trust in Your Presence and find strength and courage in knowing that You are always with me, to guide, guard and protect me. (*) [Mt.28: 19-20]

XIII Lord, through Your Glorious Ascension to the Right Hand of the Father, may I look to the heavens for strength and protection as I confidently keep my feet well-grounded on earth, fulfilling whatever the Will of the Father entrusted to me for His glory, my salvation, and the good of others. (*) [Jn.6:53; Mt.6:11]

XIV Lord, through Your Promise that Your Followers would be Baptized in the Holy Spirit to be witnesses of the Resurrection to all the world, may I be truly wise and always follow the Father's Will through the guidance and inspiration of the Holy Spirit in my life. (*) [Act.1:4-8; 12-15]

XV Lord, through the Descent of the Holy Spirit on the Early Christian Community gathered in the Upper Room together with Mary, may my heart burn with an inner fire of love and enthusiasm for the Faith, that in the gifts and the fruits of the Holy Spirit, I may fearlessly proclaim that You are Jesus, Son of God, Lord and Savior, in Whose Name we find salvation. (*) [Acts 2]

Lord Jesus, help me to walk with You each day of my life. The sorrow and joy, the pain and healing, the failures and triumphs of my life are small personal deaths and resurrections that lead me closer to You. Give me the faith and trust I need to walk with You in the new life Your Resurrection brings. May I journey with You to Calvary and beyond, that I may share in the fruits of Your Glorious Resurrection. With Padre Pio to accompany me, I patiently and joyfully confide and trust in You, my Lord and Risen Savior, in Whose Name I find salvation and eternal Life. You live forever. Amen.

Mary, Mother of our Redeemer and our Blessed Mother, be with me always. You comforted Jesus on the road to Calvary by your silent and loving presence; you held his lifeless body close to your Immaculate Heart, as you offered the sadness and suffering that only a mother can feel when she sees the suffering of her child; look on me as you looked at Jesus. Hold me close to your mother's heart in my moments of temptation and sin, that His marred image in my frail nature, may not succumb to temptation and sin. Pray for me that I may be a LIVING IMAGE OF JESUS alive and well in the heart of one who believes and loves Him...Dear Mother, You were a constant support and strength to our Father, Padre Pio, throughout his lifelong Calvary, until he came to the promised reward offered all God's faithful children. Accompany me, that I also may share in the graces and joys of the Resurrection.

Padre Pio of Pietrelcina, by a singular grace you were blessed to participate in the mystery of the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ. Through your ministry, God revealed the marvels of His mercy to numberless souls. Pray for me, that like you, and through your loving intercession, I may remain with Christ in His Passion so as to joyfully attain as you to the glory of the Resurrection. Intercede for me with the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, who is God for ever. Amen.
